Modern English Grammar is a systematic and rigorous survey of the structure of contemporary English grammar. The course also explores the usage problems associated with contemporary grammar in both speech and writing. Grammar is that system of principles and rules that allow us to organize our words and sentences into coherent, meaningful language. Grammatical usage "errors" occur whenever any of us violate those principles or rules of grammatical organization. The topics we will cover are wide in scope, including Regular attendance is strongly recommended (10% of the final grade). Besides the class lectures, there will be:

one in-class mid-term exam 35% of the final grade
 one in-class final exam 35% of the final grade five to six homework exercises 20% of the final grade

The homework exercises will be drawn from the set of exercises in the textbook.
