개요/진행	The objective of English Writing course is to improve students' ability to write in English as a foreign language at a university level by understanding the basic structures of paragraphs written in English and practicing to write essays. In this course, students will be able to improve their critical thinking ability as well as English writing through reading good sample essays and brainstorming in English. Native-speaking instructors will operate this course, so students are expected to use only English during the session.
